

“When parents are involved in their children’s education at home, they do better in school.

And when parents are involved in school, children go further in school and the schools they go to are better.”

NEA Communications, May 2002

How can I start getting involved with my child’s school?

A great first step is to join the PTSO.

What is the PTSO?

The PTSO is the Parent-Teacher-Student-Organization.

This group of parents, teachers, and students helps to better serve the students and community of McGarvin Intermediate School.

What are the benefits of PTSO?

By getting involved with PTSO, you can:

- √ Be an effective advocate for your children
  - √ Network with other parents
- √ Learn how to help your children attend a four-year university after graduation
- √ Collaborate with McGarvin teachers to enhance your children’s educational experience

If you are interested in learning more about PTSO or joining this dynamic team, please complete the form below.
