

SCHOOL PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT POLICY

2008-2009

ALL SCHOOLS

Part I General Expectations

Monroe Elementary School agrees to implement the following statutory requirements:

- The school will jointly develop with parents, and distribute to parents, a School Parental Involvement Policy that the school and parents agree on.
- The school will notify parents about the School Parental Involvement Policy in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, will distribute this policy to parents in a language the parents can understand.
- The school will make the School Parental Involvement Policy available to the local community.
- The school will ensure accessibility and opportunities for parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory students.
- The school will periodically update the School Parental Involvement Policy to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.
- The school will adopt the school's school-parent compact as a component of its School Parental Involvement Policy.
- The school agrees to be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring –

- (A) that parents play an integral role in assisting in their child's learning;*
- (B) that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;*
- (C) that parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;*
- (D) the carrying out of other activities.*

Part IV Discretionary School Parental Involvement Policy Components

NOTE: The School Parental Involvement Policy may include additional paragraphs listing and describing other discretionary activities that the school, in consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build parents' capacity for involvement in the school to support their children's academic achievement, such as the following discretionary activities:

- involving parents in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of that training;
- providing necessary literacy training for parents;
- paying reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parental involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions;
- training parents to enhance the involvement of other parents;
- arranging school meetings at a variety of times, or conducting in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend those conferences at school;
- adopting and implementing model approaches to improving parental involvement;
- developing appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses, including faith-based organizations, in parental involvement activities; and
- providing other reasonable support for parental involvement activities as parents may request.

Part V Adoption

This School Parental Involvement Policy has been developed jointly with, and agreed on with, parents as evidenced by: Parent Involvement Policy Committee Members attended a District sponsored workshop in April. The Committee met in May to make suggestions and give input on the School Parental Involvement Policy. Teachers met throughout the months of May and June to help create a plan. The final plan was distributed in June.

This policy was adopted by Monroe Elementary School on June 19, 2008 and will be in effect for the period of 2008-2009. The school will distribute this policy to all parents on or before. It will be made available to the local community on or before October 1, 2008. Monroe's notification to parents of this policy will be in an understandable and uniform format, and, to the extent practicable, provide a copy of this policy to parents in a language that parents can understand.
